COMMENTS: The author seeks to honor two deutes of the San Bernardino Sherriff's Department who were lost in the line of duty over ten years ago. Specifically, Sheriff's Deputy Ronald Wayne Ives was an eight-year veteran of the San Bernardino Sheriff's Department. He graduated from the Sheriff's Training Academy in 1996 and was eventually promoted and assigned to Patrol at Rancho Cucamonga Station. Deputy Ives was lost in the line of duty on September 1, 2004 in Rancho Cucamonga. While on patrol a SUV ran a red light and struck his motorcycle at approximately 50 miles per hour, and he later succumbed to his injuries. He was an active pillar of his community, and was survived by his wife Karen and son Blake.

Sheriff's Deputy Daniel Jess Lobo, Jr. served the San Bernardino Sheriff's Department for 11 years. He graduated from the Sheriff's Training Academy in 1994, and was assigned to the West Valley Detention Center before he was promoted and assigned to patrol at the Rancho Cucamonga Station in 1998. Deputy Lobo was lost on October 11, 2005, while responding to an accident. He was remembered for his devotion to his family, and was survived by wife, Jennifer, and three daughters, Kiley, Kadie, and Maddison.

Deputies Ives and Lobo served the County of San Bernardino valiantly, and both men made the San Bernardino community a safer place. This resolution permanently memorializes their sacrifice.
