

INFORMATIONAL HEARING – SELECT COMMITTEE ON URBAN DEVELOPMENT TO COMBAT CLIMATE CHANGE

BUILDING A SUSTAINABLE CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY BY COMMUNITY

Monday, March 7, 2022 at 2:30pm

California State Capitol, Room 4202

I. Welcome and Opening Remarks

- Laura Friedman, Chair, Select Committee on Urban Development to Combat Climate Change

II. What are Sustainable Communities?

- Stephanie Pincetl, PhD, Chair, Environmental Science and Engineering; Founding Director of the California Center of Sustainable Communities at UCLA

III. The Role of State Government in Building Sustainable Communities

- Saharnaz Mirzazad, Deputy Director, Planning and Community Investment, California Strategic Growth Council
- Darwin Moosavi, Deputy Secretary, Environmental Policy and Housing Coordination, California State Transportation Agency
- Megan Kirkeby, Deputy Director for Housing Policy Development, Department of Housing and Community Development
- Craig Shields, Branch Chief for Climate Investments, Department of Housing and Community Development
- Q&A

IV. Perspectives on Next Steps and Building Metrics to Evaluate Sustainable Communities

- Emi Wang, Associate Director, Capacity Building at The Greenlining Institute
- Antoinette Meier, Senior Director of Regional Planning, San Diego Association of Governments
- Q&A

V. Public Comment